From the CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

"God is infinitely good and all His works are good. Yet no one can escape the experience of suffering or the evils in nature which seems to be linked to the limitations proper to creatures: and above all the question of moral evil. Where does evil come from? 'I sought whence evil comes and there was no solution,' said St. Augustine, and his own painful quest would only be resolve by his conversion to the living God. For 'the mystery of lawlessness' is clarified only in the light of the 'mystery of our religion.' The revelation of divine love in Christ manifested at the same time the extent of evil and the superabundance of grace. We must therefore approach the question of the origin of evil by fixing the eyes of our faith on him who alone is its conqueror." (CCC, 385)

Gospel Reflection from a Parishioner Holy Gospel of Mark 6: 1 - 6

"Where did this man get all this?" They saw but they didn't believe. The challenge of this gospel is to look beyond our own knowledge of others preconditioned by what we think we know about them and listen to them, allow them to teach us about God and how to be faith - filled disciples.

God does not very often visit us in the unusual and spectacular, hitting us over the head so that we don't miss God's message of salvation. Most often God visits us in the ordinary circumstances of our own lives through ordinary people we meet who are faithful as Jesus was to their own mission to make known the gospel. It is too easy to dismiss the events of this gospel reading as past history. After all, we like to think, if we had been there and seen those mighty deeds, we would have believed.

Jesus, give us the grace to find you in ordinary circumstances of life,
- AS WE LEARN TO TRUST IN YOU.

Teach us to find all the ways that you surprise us by joy,

- AS WE LEARN TO HAVE FAITH IN YOU.

Teach us to be grateful for being called to serve the poor, - AS WE LEARN TO LOVE UNSELFISHLY WITH YOU. AMEN.

Legacies – an important part of Christian giving! Maybe once you have made provisions for your loved ones, you will consider making a lasting gift to God by leaving a legacy to His Church. A gift in your Will to your Parish is one of the most valuable and lasting ways you can continue to support its mission, ministry and future spiritual development for our children and generations to come. A legacy can be your expression of gratitude and thanksgiving to God for the gift of your life, and it will help keep our Parish alive and transform its future.
