From the Parish Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

May the praise and glory of God remain in our minds and hearts as we walk with him in the Spirit of Christ Jesus!

The Lord in meekness and humility has victoriously won for us Salvation. We have been made heirs of the Father, joint-heirs with the Son and by the gift of the Holy Spirit Children of the Heavenly Kingdom and therefore one family with God, the Blessed Trinity.

“Nothing is more apt to confirm our faith and hope than holding it fixed in our minds that nothing is impossible with God. Once our reason has grasped the idea of God’s almighty power, it will easily and without any hesitation admit everything that [the Creed] will afterwards propose to us to believe- even if they be great marvellous things, far above the ordinary laws of nature.” (CCC, 274)

Dearly beloved, let us put aside the misdeeds of the body, bury our pride that over-burdens us, and reach out to possess the meek and humble Spirit of Christ, so that we may have rest with the Heavenly Father as Children after His own heart. God Love You!

Remain in God’s love and care!

Gospel reflection from a Parishioner

The Holy Gospel according to Matthew 11 : 25 – 30

Heavenly Father, Lord of heaven and earth, we thank you that you have hidden things from the learned and clever and revealed them to children.

Today's passage is best understood as a wonderful summary of the "Little Way" of St. Therese of Lisieux.

Jesus' overall response is positive, he is not concerned with those who don't understand, his entire focus is on the wisdom of the little ones. He is like Mary in the Magnificat celebrating the "Lovely lifted up" rather than rejoicing at "the mighty cast down".

Lord we thank you for the gift of St. Therese.

Truly you revealed things to a mere child, which you hid from the learned and clever.
