Parish Notices

* Racial Justice Sunday Next Sunday 14th Sept is a day on which Christians are called to pray for an end to racism and racial inequality. The Catholic Church in England and Wales contribute in combating human trafficking and modern-day forms of slavery, and support some of the most vulnerable and marginalised people. There will be a retiring collection next Sunday to support the work of the Catholic Bishops Conference and the Catholic Association for Racial Justice.

* The Parish Shop "Nearly New Sale" is in the old Travel World shop (next to Peacocks) this week to Sat 13th. Any saleable items are still welcome, and bring them along - clothes, shoes, bric-a-brac etc (but no electrical items please). Any queries call Sheila on 01495 723507.

* Monthly Quiz Our next Quiz and Bingo evening is on Thursday 11th September at 7:30pm in All Saints hall. Why not come along and have a bit of fun for two hours? Quiz then Bingo at half time. Entry £3 per head includes a drink with prizes for winners.

* Curry Night will take place on Thursday 25th Sep in All Saints Hall. An invitation is extended to our family in St John's and Immaculate Conception. Cost is £5 to commence at 6.30pm. Please contact Vince on 304022 by Thursday 11th Sep. for catering purposes. Thank you.

* Autumn Draw tickets are still available in All Saints church porch.

* Sponsored walk: Julie Thomas is doing a walk in aid of the Alzheimer's Society. Forms to sponsor her are on All Saints Piety Stall.

From the Parish Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

God is Love! Let us love God above all creatures and all earthly pleasures.

"The fruits of charity are joy, peace, and mercy; charity demands beneficence and fraternal correction; it is benevolence; it fosters reciprocity and remains disinterested and generous; it is friendship and communion: 'Love is itself the fulfilment of all our works. There is the goal; that is why we run: we run toward it, and once we reach it, in it shall we find rest." (CCC, 1829)

Dearly beloved, as we seek God before all things, may we combine contemplation and prayer with apostolic love. By contemplation and prayer we adhere to God, who is Love, in mind and heart; and by apostolic Love we strive to associate ourselves with the work of redemption and to the spreading of the Kingdom of God, by our life as the "Body of Christ".

Beloved, let us remember that all things yield delight when the Lord is present, but all things grow loathsome without the Lord.

May the Lord help us to realise and give us the grace to live the truth that He is our Lord, our God and our All. And may God remain our portion and our goal in life.

Sacraments

We congratulate Nevie Anais Evans and Thea Isla Evans who will be Baptised today at All Saints Church during Mass at 10:30am. May our prayers accompany them and their parents who will be the first teachers of the Faith to their children.
Let us continue to pray for Beatrix Amelia Lily Ann Segelov who will be baptised during the sector.

on Saturday 20th September at Immaculate Conception during Mass at 5:30pm.

Gospel reflection from a Parishioner The Holy Gospel of Matthew 18: 15 - 20

"The Jesus way" of dealing with conflict is to go through a series of procedures, starting with those which will cause the least hurt, and gradually moving to more severe ones, always making sure that the others have been tried and failed.

Our own shortcomings lead us to stumble again and again, while the shortcomings of other Christians both hurt and embarrass us.

Frequently, when we are faithful to Jesus' teaching and when we correct other people in religious matters we are described as uncharitable, yet the Gospel challenges us to correct one another in love and respect, and the beauty of God, who has made each one of us in his divine image and likeness.

Please pray for the parishioners of our Pastoral Area, especially:

those whose anniversary occurs at this time:
