From the Parish Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We can call God as "Father" because he is revealed to us by his Son, Jesus Christ who emptied himself of his divinity and taking our human nature he accepted death on the cross for our salvation. Through the power of the Holy Spirit he was raised to life and by sending his Spirit upon us we have been made adopted children of God and like Jesus we can call God "Father".

"Before we make our own this first exclamation of the Lord's Prayer, we must humbly cleanse our hearts of certain false images drawn 'from this world.' Humility makes us recognize that 'no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him,' that is, 'to little children.' The purification of our hearts has to do with paternal or maternal images, stemming from our personal and cultural history, and influencing our relationship with God. God our Father transcends the categories of the created world. To impose our own ideas in this area 'upon him' would be to fabricate idols to adore or pull down. To pray to the Father is to enter into his mystery as he is and as the Son has revealed him to us." (CCC, cf. 2779)

Dearly beloved, God is a merciful and ever- loving Father slow to anger and rich in mercy. Let us turn away from all ways of disobedience and respond to God's call to participate in his divine life of Mercy and Love, which seeks to unite all humanity to himself, through Christ Our Lord and by the gift and power of the Holy Spirit made heirs of the Father, joint heirs of the Son, children of the Kingdom and one Family with the Blessed Trinity.

Remain in God's love and care!

Gospel reflection from a Parishioner

Gospel of Matthew 21: 28 - 32

Our word matters greatly in our relationships, whether family or friends or with God. When we do not have our word, we are nothing, because we cannot be trusted with even the smallest responsibility.

The second Son assumed that he could easily fool his father; his word was meaningless and lacked sincerity.

The first son thought better of saying no, he had undergone conversion. He had the honesty and humility to realise his mistake, and change his decision.

Are we people of our word? Let us decide to be honest and humble enough to undergo conversion, and to change our wrong decisions.

Please pray for the parishioners of our Pastoral Area, especially:

those whose anniversary occurs at this time:

Mary Jones, Cliff McDermott, Dennis O'Dwyer, Esme Worthington, Pauline Randall, Louis Antoniazzi, Monica Davies, Glyn Oliver, Angelina Carini, Frances Tunley.
