From the Parish Priest

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Let us give thanks and praise to God at all times, for His Love is Eternal!

Love has no beginning and has no end; Love is immortal, and Love is the fulfilling of the law. Therefore perfect love casts away fear. God is Love.

"Each one receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgement that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven – through a purification or immediately, - or immediate and everlasting damnation.

At the evening of our life, we shall be judged on our love." (CCC, 1022)

Beloved, like the perfect wife, let the reward of love motivate us in all our works and dealings with one another, and God who is Love will be glorified and will glorify Himself in us, with the glory of Christ prepared for all His faithful children before the foundation of the world.

Remain in God's Love as He remains in you, and through the power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in you, you shall bear the fruit that endures forever in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Stay blessed.

Eternal Rest

We pray for the repose of the soul of Margaret Williams whose Funeral service will take place at All Saints Church on Wednesday 19th November at 12noon.
May she rest in Peace and rise in glory.
Our sincere sympathy goes to her family.

Gospel Reflection from a Parishioner

The Gospel of Matthew 25 ; 14 - 30

What type of people are we? Adventurous or overly cautious? How creative are we with the talents God has given us?

These are relevant questions to ask whether or not we use Gods many gifts.

The parable of the talents is for all people and for all times.

Our various talents are an expression of God's love for us, our talents are not to be hidden or unused. They are meant to be developed by us as a sign that we appreciate God's love and blessing.

Today our thanksgiving focuses on these sets of talents that each of us has been given; and repentance for times when we have hidden our talents and failed to build the Kingdom. Our prayer is that we will each follow our unique vocation more closely in future.
