From the CATECHISM of the CATHOLIC CHURCH

“Charity is the soul of the holiness to which all are called: it ‘governs, shapes, and perfects all the means of sanctification.’

“If the Church was a body composed of different members, it couldn’t lack the noblest of all; It must have a Heart, and a Heart BURNING WITH LOVE. “And I realized that this love alone was the true motive force which enabled the other members of the Church to act; if it ceased to function, the Apostles would forget to preach the gospel, the Martyrs will refuse to shed their blood. “LOVE IN FACT, IS THE VOCATION WHICH INCLUDES ALL OTHERS; IT’S A UNIVERSE OF ITS OWN, COMPRISING ALL TIME AND SPACE – IT’S ETERNAL!” (CCC,826)

Gospel Reflection from a Parishioner

Gospel of John 15 : 9 - 17

The distinctive feature of Jesus' relationship with his disciples was his personal and unconditional love for them. He loved his own to the very end. He loved his disciples selflessly and generously because his love was wholly directed for their good.

His love was costly and sacrificial - he gave not only the best he had. He gave his very own life in order to bring the abundant everlasting life of the eternal Father to those who believed in him.
