A parishioner's reflection on TODAY'S GOSPEL Matthew 28: 16-20

Today's Gospel is the call of Jesus to his followers to go to the whole world, not just to a certain group. This Feast is for the whole world – to bring Jesus. And we can give it in words and also by our way of life. Jesus is inside us, knocking to get out!

The apostles were left with Jesus' work. He had been with them for a few years. He is now with them - and us - in a different way.

Our joy is like the joy of Jesus. Some icons of the Ascension have him smiling going into heaven. Christian joy is a sharing in the joy of Jesus, who has fulfilled God's work and will. Even with the work still to be done, he lives in joy and then - we can live in hope.

Joy is rooted not just in love but in our mission. We are happy to be part of God's big job for the world. All of our lives are ways of being for Jesus – men and women with others and for others. Hope is based not on human optimism but on the victory of Jesus over sin and death.

The gifts of today's feast are joy and hope.

"A joy without hope is just enjoyment, a temporary happiness. A hope without joy is not hope and doesn't extend beyond a healthy optimism." Pope Francis, May 2016.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me
Body of Christ, save me
Blood of Christ, inebriate me
Water from the side of Christ, wash me
Passion of Christ, strengthen me
O good Jesus, hear me
Within Thy wounds hide me
Separated from Thee let me never be
From the malicious enemy defend me
In the hour of my death call me
And bid me come unto Thee
That I may praise Thee with Thy saints
Forever and ever Amen
