*A REFLECTION on TODAY'S GOSPEL Luke 5: 1-11

In many of our institutions and personal life, there can be the sense of failure and of doom. Simon (Peter) had a poor night's fishing – never had such a bad catch. Money was lost, salaries had to be paid to workers, the laughter aimed at him. Doom so bad that he cannot believe Jesus saying to go and fish again.

The Gospel challenges the loneliness of going it alone. And the feeling of doom. We are caught together in the big net of God. He enjoys floundering around in the net with us. We are never alone and never failures. But we can be failures on our own.

This Gospel is about working together. From the first, we are loved and called together. We don't make it on your own. We follow together. We cannot be Christians on our own. We cannot go it alone.

This is a call and a challenge today, and a joy. Living in a world which is very impersonal at times, we need zones and places of community. So much of our communication now can be lonely - text messages; Facebook; WhatsApp - all are impersonal. We may get used to that. But God is always near - promising an abundance. Stay with Him.
