A reflection on today's Gospel (John 14: 23 – 29)

Making a home is a big opportunity of love for a husband and wife and a family. They try to make it their own: pictures and memorabilia here and there that make a home out of a house. It doesn't have to be perfect. They want others to be able to feel at home in their home also.

The same with Jesus. In our hearts and the depths of our personality he makes a home for himself and the Father. He asks for a loving and welcoming heart, not a place that is perfect, tidy and clean. To make a home is a work of love. Jesus' making of a home in us comes through our growth and development in love. The loving marriage, the loving friendship, the heart that cares for others, the family that is open to faith and love – these are what makes Jesus feel at home.

This may be a strange way of looking on God. We think of God in the power of nature and almost the maker of history. God seems to reject this all-powerful view of himself and make himself simple, humble and accessible in the home of our hearts.

Home is a place of help. We look for each other and the home of contentment is where each cares for the other.

St Ignatius used say each day, 'Who can I help today?'. Maybe we can make that part of the music of our homes. This is God helping through you, and it is God finding us and each other in love.

† Rest in Peace

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from the side of Christ, wash me
Passion of Christ, strengthen me
O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Separated from Thee let me never be
From the malicious enemy defend me
In the hour of my death call me
And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints.
Forever and ever Amen

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
cast down to hell Satan,
and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
Amen
