A reflection on today's Gospel (John 17: 20 – 26)

Jesus makes God known by the perfect love he shows for his fragile disciples. The disciples are to be recognised as sent by Jesus by the love they have for one another.

There are over 300 references to love in the New Testament. Love is God's greatest gift to us.

By our mutual love we reveal God's love to the world. Pagans said to one another: in the time of the Early Church: 'See how these Christians love one another!' They were impressed by this mystery and at least some came to believe in Jesus.

† Rest in Peace

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from the side of Christ, wash me
Passion of Christ, strengthen me
O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Separated from Thee let me never be
From the malicious enemy defend me
In the hour of my death call me
And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints.
Forever and ever Amen

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God,
cast down to hell Satan,
and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
Amen
