Gospel Reflection (from a parishioner) JOHN 16: 12-15

Jesus tells us that he is sending the Spirit to us. The Spirit of the Word speaks to us in a most profound way because he dwells with us and guides us to all truth.

The Spirit is all we need, provided we allow the Spirit to speak through us and not turn God's word into OUR word.

Openness to the Spirit within is our guarantee that what we speak as disciples is spoken in Jesus' name.

This Pentecost commemoration isn't simply recalling a past event but celebrating what God is doing with us now.

In baptism each of us received the Spirit; that was our Pentecost. The spirit dwells within us so we can be faithful and true disciples. The indwelling of the Spirit is a continual Pentecost.

While at times one can hear the Spirit speak - even in a noisy crowd, it is often only in silence that one hears the deepest voice, that one plumbs the depth of meaning. It is only when what is heard is pondered, that its full meaning is revealed.

The quest for truth, therefore, involves prayerfulness and reflectiveness. Jesus turned to his Father again and again in prayer to listen to him and to seek his will. Prayer is then surely one of the privileged ways of listening. But it must always be validated by life. One who listens to "what the Spirit is telling me" in prayer, but who pays little heed to what others are saying in daily life is surely suspect.

Prayer must be in contact with people and events, since God speaks not only in the silence of our hearts, but also in the people around us.

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from the side of Christ, wash me Passion of Christ, strengthen me O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Separated from Thee let me never be From the malicious enemy defend me In the hour of my death call me And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints. Forever and ever Amen

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast down to hell Satan, and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen
