A parishioners reflection on today's Gospel Luke 17: 11-19

How long does gratitude last? These lepers were respectful, even fawning, when they were still suffering: “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.” In their misery they had waived the old hostility between Jews and Samaritans.

But when they saw their leprosy healed, and felt themselves whole, nine of them took their blessing for granted and forgot to say “Thank you”.

I have done it myself, Lord. I go looking for something, advertising my need, seeking sympathy. And when somebody helps me, part of me is muttering ‘He was only doing his job’, or ‘it’s what you’d expect of a neighbour’. I take kindness for granted, and do not bother to say “Thank you”.

It was the stranger, the Samaritan, who took the trouble to go back to Jesus and became an icon of gratitude. The other nine went for a drink, feeling – Well, that’s only what the rabbis / doctors / healers are there for.

Lord, all through my life I have known kindnesses; there have been people whom I thanked after a big favour, using inflated language – that I would never forget them. But my gratitude grows cold.

Let me count my blessings, never take them for granted.

We need to remember to:

- * keep the personal alive, to keep compassion active and to be a community of listeners before we are speakers;*
- * look others in the eye with love and care before asking anything of them;*
- * bring mercy, sometimes without words, with a listening ear to the cares of all.*

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from the side of Christ, wash me Passion of Christ, strengthen me O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Separated from Thee let me never be From the malicious enemy defend me In the hour of my death call me And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints. Forever and ever Amen

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast down to hell Satan, and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen
