A reflection on today's Gospel Luke 18: 9-14

In today's world, humility is a quality not often appreciated. Every day we hear from political candidates who are running for high office. They tell us of their strengths and the vision that they have for our country. Some of the candidates are humble, yet other candidates believe they have all the answers. Humility is a quality that all leaders need to possess, at least to some degree.

No one person has all of the answers or all of the wisdom. This is true also in families, churches and in any group of people who come together for a purpose.

Humility does not mean that we demean ourselves or pretend to be less than we are. True humility means that we recognize and acknowledge our limitations as well as our gifts and our talents. No one person has all the answers. Humble people will freely ask for advice or wisdom and will acknowledge when they need help.

Jesus does not want us to demean ourselves, nor does he want us to exalt ourselves. Jesus has gifted each and every person with many gifts and talents. However, Jesus also realises that we also have limitations and faults.

Today be mindful of when it is time to share our gifts or talents. Give thanks for the many gifts we have to share and give thanks for the many people who share their insights and talents with us. Together, we can enrich our world and make it a loving and peaceful place.

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from the side of Christ, wash me Passion of Christ, strengthen me O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Separated from Thee let me never be From the malicious enemy defend me In the hour of my death call me And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints. Forever and ever Amen

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast down to hell Satan, and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen
