Some thoughts on today's Gospel Luke 20: 27, 34-38

By answering the exaggerated story of the Sadducees, who did not believe in the resurrection, Jesus points out that the resurrected state is a new creation where we are sharing in the divine life of God.

It is different from our present life, but a continuation nonetheless of our personalities, as moulded by our present life.

To believe in your own personal resurrection is a wonderful gift in this life. It gives meaning to all that makes up your life.

It is expressed also in our prayers that we offer for the repose of the souls of all those who have gone before us, which gets great emphasis during this month of November.

When we fear that we have "lost" loved ones we must believe that they are not lost. The relationship continues. Spend some time communing with someone you love who has gone before you.

THE ARCHBISHOPS letter last week.

Please take the time to read this:

The Welsh Government wants to take away the rights of parents to withdraw from both Religious Education and Sex Education. They also want to dumb-down the subject of RE and force schools to teach children about world views instead.

Archbishop George is asking parishioners to urgently contact their Assembly Member and demand that the state does not usurp parents' rights to decide how they teach these sensitive topics to their children.

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, sanctify me Body of Christ, save me Blood of Christ, inebriate me Water from the side of Christ, wash me Passion of Christ, strengthen me O good Jesus, hear me Within Thy wounds hide me Separated from Thee let me never be From the malicious enemy defend me In the hour of my death call me And bid me come unto Thee That I may praise Thee with Thy saints. Forever and ever Amen

Prayer to St Michael the Archangel
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast down to hell Satan, and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen
